

Jen-L W. Lyman

Jen-L W. Lyman joined the Hawai'i Community Foundation (HCF) in 2017. She leads HCF's Professional Advisor, Gift Planning, and Legacy programs, partnering with professional advisors and their clients to structure charitable plans, strengthen long-term relationships, and advance planned and legacy giving.

In this role, Jen-L collaborates across HCF teams to support donor intent and stewardship and to help donors align their philanthropy with community priorities. She supports thoughtful gift planning, including complex gifts and legacy strategies, to help make charitable giving effective and enduring.

Prior to joining HCF, Jen-L served as Vice President and Team Leader in First Hawaiian Bank's Personal Trust Division, practiced as an associate attorney at Stirling & Kleintop, and clerked for Justice Robert G. Klein at the Hawai'i Supreme Court.

Jen-L serves on the boards of Goodwill Hawai'i Contract Services (Vice Chair) and the YMCA of Honolulu (Chair, Philanthropy Committee). She also serves with the Hawai'i Gift Planning Council and the Hawai'i Tax Institute Advisory Committee.

Jen-L is a graduate of Kamehameha Schools and earned a B.A. in Political Science, cum laude, from the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa. She received her J.D. and an Environmental Law Certificate from the William S. Richardson School of Law. She is licensed to practice law in the State of Hawai'i and is a Certified Trust and Financial Advisor (CTFA). In her work, she is committed to helping generosity create lasting impact across Hawai'i.
