

Martha Khlopin is the Talk Show Radio Host of, “A Medicare Moment with Martha,” which is syndicated throughout the country and airs in Hawaii for Salem Media Group, America’s leading broadcaster in talk programming. Martha’s show airs weekly on AM690 THE ANSWER and 94.3FM at 9:30am on Sundays. She is also founder and Managing Director of get2insurance.com which offers insurance planning to individuals across the country. Martha also appears on Fox affiliate Khon2’s Living 808 program which features Martha dispensing information to help viewers navigate health insurance. Martha has more than 30 years of experience in the financial services and insurance industry and is a graduate of New York University. She has worked for several local health plans offering Medicare health plans to individuals, federal retirees, unions and employer groups. Martha was previously an Assistant Vice President with Bishop Trust Company. Prior to relocating to Hawaii she was a Vice-President at Morgan Stanley/Dean Witter in Manhattan. Martha has lived in Hawaii for more than 30 years, is married with two children. She enjoys spending time with her family and sailing.

